*Students using a private tutor need to register yearly as using a tutor. Fee is in place to cover expenses related to our revised program of communication with tutor and evaluation of tutored student and supplemental materials and website for connection to Cantor for b'nai mitzvah preparation.

** The unsubsidized cost for a child to attend religious school only is approximately $500. United Hebrew Congregation supports the education of our children and offers this subsidized cost to its members for religious and Hebrew school. In turn, each generation supports the education of the next generation with their annual commitment to the congregation.
