

TEARS AND SMILES

Often, when death strikes, we ask: Why? Why him? Why her? Why now? There are many questions surrounding the subject of death for which we do not have answers. There are mysteries involved in death and, if we insist on knowing everything, we shall undoubtedly be frustrated. But there are some things we do know.

First, we want to be remembered; each of us wants to be remembered even after we are gone from this world. The pyramids and the thousands of monuments and memorials erected by human beings all over the globe are testimony to this overriding desire not to be forgotten.

As long as we are remembered, we are immortal. Judaism teaches that through memory, among other ways, we live on, that death is not the end.

We know, also, that love, and death are inextricably connected. To enter any relationship of deep meaning is to run the risk of deep sorrow. Tears are often the price of love. Tears are our tribute to those who have died and cannot be forgotten.

The memories of our loved ones, although they are sometimes accompanied by tears, remind us that even with pain, it is worth loving.

As we gather for the service of Yizkor, we remember parents, children, siblings, spouses, and friends. We remember them with tears and smiles.

The tears are prompted by the awareness that they are no longer with us physically. The smiles are because we remember the joy that they brought to our lives and because of the love for them in our hearts and minds.

Through memory and enduring love, they remain eternal.

PSALM 121

אָשֶׁר עַנִּי אֱלֹהִים מֵאֵין יְבָא עֹזָרִי : עֹזָרִי מִעֵם יְהוָה עֲשָׂה שָׁמִים
 וְאָרֶץ : אָלִיתִן לְמוֹת רַגְלָךְ אַלְיָנוּם שְׁמָרָךְ : הַגָּה לֹא יִנוּם וְלֹא יִשְׁן
 שׁוֹמֵר יִשְׁרָאֵל : יְהוָה שְׁמָרָךְ יְהוָה אֶלְךָ עַל־יָד יִמְנָךְ : יוֹמָם הַשְׁמָשָׁ
 לְאַיִכְּבָה וַיַּרְחֵךְ בְּלִילָה : יְהוָה יִשְׁמָר מִכְלָרָע יִשְׁמַר אַתְּנֶפֶשָׁךְ : יְהוָה
 יִשְׁמַר־צַאתְךָ וּבוֹאָךְ מַעֲפָתָה וְעַד־עוֹלָם :

I lift up my eyes to the mountains.

From where does my help come?

My help comes from God, who made heaven and earth.

God will not let your foot be moved;

God who watches you will not slumber.

Behold, God who watches Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

God is your keeper; the shade upon your right hand.

The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.

God shall preserve you from all evil; and shall preserve your soul.

God shall preserve your going out and your coming in from this time forth, and for evermore.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;

He guideth me in straight paths
for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil,

For Thou are with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou hast anointed my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Let the glory of God be extolled, let God's great name be hallowed in the world whose creation God willed. May God rule in our own day, in our own lives, and in the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen. Let God's great name be praised for ever and ever. Beyond all praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter is the Holy One, the Blessed One, whom yet we glorify, honor and exalt. And let us say: Amen. For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen. May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, on all Israel, and all the world and let us say: Amen.

Yahrzeit Candle Reading

We commemorate the anniversary of the death of loved ones by kindling a yahrzeit candle, which burns throughout the 24 -hour day of the anniversary of death. There are no specific prayers to recite when one lights a yahrzeit candle. We have included one for you to use or you may speak the words of your heart.

It is also tradition to perform an act of tzedakah in memory of your loved one around the time of their Yahrzeit, as well as to recite Kaddish on the Shabbat closest to the yahrzeit.

At this moment, I pause for thought in memory of my beloved
I give thanks for the blessing of life, of companionship, and of memory.
I am grateful for the strength and faith that sustained me in the hour of my bereavement. Though sorrow lingers, I have learned that love is stronger than death. Though my loved one is beyond my sight, I do not despair, for I sense my beloved in my heart as a living presence.

Sustained by words of faith, comforted by precious memories, I kindle the Yahrzeit light in remembrance. As this light burns pure and clear, so may the blessed memory of the goodness of my dear illumine my soul.

For a male

זכורנו לברכה
zichrono livracha

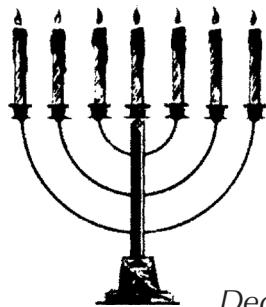

His memory is a blessing.

For a female

זכרוןָה לברכה
zichronah livracha

Her memory is a blessing.

Yizkor, the memorial prayer service for departed loved ones, is said four times a year: The 7th day of Passover, Shavuot (there is only one day), Yom Kippur and Simchat Torah (which is combined with Shemini Atzeret). At United Hebrew this memorial prayer service follows our festival morning service. The dates for this year's Yizkor observances are September 25 and October 7 in 2023 and April 29 and June 12 in 2024.
